THIS delicious tonic especially designed for the use of the medical profession and the family, passesses those intrinsic medicinal properties (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an old and pure gin. The business of manufacturing spurious gins, and offering thom as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medica-ted," etc., has become so common that the public are invite sanddows of nearty apertiting that is offered justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house, (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new Eng in the history of the trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years' experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

STOMACH BITTERS!!

In view of the fact that every member of the human In view of the fact that every member of the human family is more or less subjected to some complaint, besides innumerable other conditions in life, which, by the assistance of a little knowledge or exercise of common sense, they may be able so to regulate their habits of dict, and with the assistance of a good tonic, secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desire lobject, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life; for this end br. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which at this day is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Billion Complaints, arising from a moubal inection of the stomach or bowels, producing Cramps, Dysintery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., the-e Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhea, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedly regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, when taken in all its various forms, than any other, the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs. and stated diseases cannot, be contracted when creates nausea nor oftends the palate, and remiering unprinciples and open of the parale, and rendering me-necessary any change of diet or interruption to usual pursuits, but promotes sound sleep and healthy digra-tion, the complaint is thus removed as speedily as fal consistent with the production of a thorough and per-

The persons in advanced years who are suffering from an enterbled constitution and infirm body, these litters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and needs only to be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing, these lifters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is merced to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladles should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility and before so doing, ask your physician, who, if he is as quainted with the virtue of the litters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CATION.—We caution the public against using any of the many initiations or counterfeits, but ask for Hosteter's Olebrated Stonach Bitters, and see that each bottle as the words "Dr. J Hostetter's Stomach Bitters' lown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the me tallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our auto-graph signature is on the label.
